The prize includes two return Business Class flights with Aer Lingus direct from Ireland to New York and three nights accommodation at the Fitzpatrick Manhattan hotel.

AER LINGUS BUSINESS CLASS SERVICE

Aer Lingus offers daily direct flights from Dublin to New York and four flights weekly from Shannon to New York.

The Aer Lingus Business Class service offers lie-flat sleeper seats, which allow more comfort, space and privacy onboard. A state-of-the-art inflight entertainment system is fully controlled by the passenger and viewed on a large personal TV screen. Also featured is a choice of extensive content that includes hours of movies and television programmes, 30 interactive games, and the ability to create a personal music playlist from thousands of MP3 tracks.

The Business Class menu provides a choice of specially selected wines and culinary specialities prepared by gourmet chefs. Other benefits of the Aer Lingus Business Class service include dedicated check-in desks and priority baggage delivery, an increased free baggage allowance, Business Class lounge access, pre-boarding facilities, and the flexibility to re-book at any time. (See www.aerlingus.com.)

FITZPATRICK MANHATTAN

The newly renovated Fitzpatrick Manhattan hotel blends luxury and Irish charm with a refreshingly classic atmosphere in the heart of midtown Manhattan.

Located on famous Lexington Avenue, this boutique hotel of 91 rooms and suites is neighbour to some of the city's most popular museums, theatres and shopping districts – as well as Manhattan's playground, Central Park. Unique cultural attractions on the doorstep include St Patrick's Cathedral, Bloomingdales, The Russian Tea Room, and Carnegie Hall. (See www.fitzpatrickhotels.com/manhattan.)
